

Support staff

You may come across some of the following staff at the University.

Interpreters

Interpreters are available for students with hearing or visual impairments. They can provide interpretation services for lectures, seminars, and other university activities. For more information, contact the Student Support Centre.

Note-takers

Note-takers are available for students with hearing or visual impairments. They can provide note-taking services for lectures, seminars, and other university activities. For more information, contact the Student Support Centre.

Electronic note-takers

Electronic note-takers are available for students with hearing or visual impairments. They can provide electronic note-taking services for lectures, seminars, and other university activities. For more information, contact the Student Support Centre.

For more information, contact the Student Support Centre.

For more information, contact the Student Support Centre.

For more information, contact the Student Support Centre.

Please contact us for further information

For more information, contact the Student Support Centre. You can reach us by phone, fax, email, or web. Our contact details are listed below.

Phone 0114 225 4778 (11 / 11)

Fax 0114 225 2161

E-mail student.support@hull.ac.uk

Web <http://www.hull.ac.uk/student-support>

Websites

Guidelines for good communication with deaf students

General guidelines